Welcome to those of you returning for the season and, of course, to all of our members who spend the entire year in our area. We hope you can make our November 5 meeting and can participate in our third annual Paint & Photo Tarpon Springs, a plein air event, either as a participant or a volunteer. The working dates for that are November 7 thru 10, with a sign in and canvas stamping date of November 6 at Leepa Rattner Museum, 1 - 3PM. You must pre-register to participate and the Awards Reception is on November 11, 5 - 7pm, at Artists' Faire Gallery. Everyone is invited! Speaking of plein air, Tarpon Springs resident Joseph Weinzettle has an exhibit at Leepa Rattner Museum. Joseph does his drawings on location, in silverpoint. It produces a beautiful soft look and local street scenes are his subjects. Don't miss it. Also, I hope you all have a piece of artwork for our upcoming December show! Heather Risley

DECEMBER JUDGED SHOW INFORMATION

We only have around 6 weeks left before our December Show at the Cultural Center. I know many of our members are preparing for this, painting away over the summer and fall. And of course, the photographers are out shooting as well.

The committee is in need of help for that week, including decorating the Cultural Center Christmas tree, registration, hanging art, and the reception on Thursday evening, as well as taking down the art on January 31. Please note that the schedule has changed this year from previous years. You'll see the complete schedule listed next.

There will be a sign up sheet on the back table at the next meeting on November 5. If you are willing to help and you will not be at the meeting on that Monday, would you please call or email Trish Gregory at 727-943-8677, trishgreg@tampabay.rr.com or Barbara Hodges at 727-940-4103, bhodges8@tampabay.rr.com.
