President's Message by Yvonne James

The annual Holiday show is a “stand out”, thanks to the leadership of Sherri Orr and all of her helpers. An organization is only as good as the volunteers that keep it going. We have two big events coming up in the Spring that will provide opportunities for new helpers with fresh ideas. “Art on the Bayou” and our annual picnic and show. Keep this in mind when we meet on January 9, 2017 as we will be looking for event leaders. Have a wonderful holiday.

Best of Show:

“Owl Time”

by Barbara Anders Hodge (Oil)

Exceptional composition. Strong graphic designs lead the eye to subtle, rich/cool, warm color contrasts

The TSAA Art Show

The annual show at the Cultural Center is filled with beautiful works created by our members. Thank you for participating in this show. Special thanks to each of you who volunteered to decorate, register the art, hung the art, brought appetizers, and prepared the Programs.

It certainly takes a Team to hold this Show!

A reminder to pick up the art on December 30th from 10:00-12:00. We will also be taking down the decorations. Sherry Orr

An artist never really finishes his work; he merely abandons it. — Paul Valéry was a French poet, essayist, and philosopher. In addition to his poetry and fiction (drama and dialogues), his interests included aphorisms on art, history, letters, music, and current events. Valéry was nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature in 12 different years.
